

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Charles', with a long horizontal flourish underneath.

CHARLES THE THIRD, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories KING, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, to Our Trusty and Well-beloved Daniel Labbad, Greeting!

WHEREAS by the Crown Estate Act 1961, it is provided that there shall be such number of Crown Estate Commissioners, not exceeding eight, as We may from time to time determine, and that every Commissioner shall be appointed by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual and shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of the Warrant under which he or she is appointed, and on vacating such office shall be eligible for re-appointment:

NOW KNOW YE that We, pursuant to the powers vested in Us by the said Act, have re-appointed and do by these Presents re-appoint you the said Daniel Labbad to be Second Crown Estate

Commissioner under the said Act, to hold office for a further period of four years commencing on and from the First day of January 2024 and concluding on the Thirty-first day of December 2027.

GIVEN at Our Court at Saint James's the 26th day of October 2023
In the second year of Our Reign

By His Majesty's Command

Alchale.

