

THE QUEEN'S AWARD TO INDUSTRY

Royal Warrant

ELIZABETH R.

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, To all to whom these Presents shall come Greeting!

Whereas We are desirous of recognising outstanding achievements in industry either in increasing exports or in technological innovation We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors institute and create a new Award and We do hereby direct that it shall be governed by the following rules and ordinances:

Firstly: The Award shall be designated and styled "The Queen's Award to Industry".

Secondly: Recipients of the Award shall be entitled to use an emblem approved by Us and to display it on flags, plaques, lapel badges, note-paper, packaging or goods and in other ways consistent with the dignity of recognition granted under the terms of this Our Warrant, and in accordance with the Grant of Appointment.

Thirdly: The emblem shall consist of Fretty of two pieces each way terminating in chief and base in pheons aligned in the form of a rectangle and fessewise in demi-cogwheels projecting to the dexter and the sinister thereof, the whole surmounted by the Royal Crown all Or which may be displayed upon a flag Azure to be flown at the place or places authorised or may be used as a device or badge in the manner above prescribed and as hereto appended.

Fourthly: There shall be prepared for the guidance of Award holders a Manual which shall prescribe and illustrate the forms of display to be adopted by holders of the Award.

Fifthly: The title to display the emblem shall be conveyed by a document to be known as the Grant of Appointment which shall specify the industrial unit or units entitled to display the emblem.

Sixthly: The currency of an Award shall lapse after five years. Except where otherwise provided in the Manual of Guidance the date of the year of the Award shall appear on the emblem or in association with it. A fresh Award in a later year shall be signified by an emblem bearing the new date, and the holder will be entitled to display the emblem for five years from that date. During the five years of the currency of an Award the holder shall also be entitled to display emblems signifying any earlier Awards made under this Our Warrant.

Seventhly: Awards shall be announced on the twenty-first day of April in each year, the date of the anniversary of Our Birthday.

Eighthly: The names of those bodies upon whom We may be pleased to confer the Award shall be published in the London Gazette.

Ninthly: The Award shall be granted in recognition of industrial efficiency as demonstrated by outstanding achievement by industrial units within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Our Channel Islands and Our Island of Man, in increasing exports or in technological innovation, or in both. The Award shall relate to the production in the United Kingdom of goods.

Tenthly: Awards shall be made on a recommendation to Us by Our Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury.

Eleventhly: It shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors by an Order under Our Sign Manual and on a recommendation to that effect by Our Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, to cancel and annul the Award to any industrial unit.

Lastly: We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting or dispensing with these rules and ordinances, or any part thereof by a notification under Our Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court at St. James's this thirtieth day of November, One thousand nine hundred and sixty-five, in the Fourteenth Year of Our Reign.

Harold Wilson.

By Her Majesty's Command.
