

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE

The 24th day of June, 1952.

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

IT is this day ordered that Her Majesty's Engraver of Seals do forthwith prepare Draft Designs of the Great Seal of the Realm, of the Seal to be kept and made use of in Scotland in place of the Great Seal of Scotland and of the Great Seal for Northern Ireland, and of their respective Counter Seals, and lay the same before Her Majesty for Her Majesty's Approbation. And that the said Engraver, upon Her Majesty's approval of the said Draft Designs being signified, do forthwith engrave the said Seals and Counter Seals and lay the same before this Board for Her Majesty's Approbation.
