 Fair day on the Sunday preceding And also a Fair to be held on the first day of May and twenty eighth day of September in every year unless either of said last mentioned days should happen to fall on Sunday and in such case on the day after. And further of our special Grace certain knowledge and mere motion by and with the advice and consent aforesaid We have given and granted and by these presents We do give and grant unto the said Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Kilkenny and their successors for ever full power and authority to have and to hold in the said City of Kilkenny the said yearly Fair to be held on the second Thursday in every month instead of the first Thursday in every month as at present with a fair day on the Sunday preceding. And also a Fair to be held on the first day of May and the twenty eighth day of September in every year unless either of said last mentioned days should happen to fall on Sunday and in such case on the day after together with a Band of 12p. Powder during the said Fairs. Paying unto our heirs and successors the yearly sum of Five pounds Two Shillings Sixpence for said Fairs. And our further Will and pleasure is that these our Letters Patent or the benefit thereof shall be in all things firm good void and effectual in the law without any further Grant from us our heirs or successors to be hold pursued or obtained. Tenured always that these our Letters Patent is inserted in the Statute Book to be read after in Dublin in that part of our said United Kingdom called Ireland within six months next ensuing the date of these presents otherwise these our Letters Patent to be void and of no effect anything herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. In witness whereof we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent.
