RIGHT TRUSTY and Well-beloved Counsellor We greet you
well:

WHEREAS We are given to understand that there are divers Grants, Warrants, Pardons, Licences, Commissions and other things directed to you Our Chancellor of Great Britain, before the demise of Our Royal Father King George the Sixth and since Our succession to the Throne, all of which several Warrants are already engrossed for Our Great Seal and some of them dated and not as yet passed under Our Great Seal: For the ease of Our Subjects and for the speedy passing the same Grants accordingly We have thought fit hereby to give you full power and authority to pass the same Grants if you shall think fit or so many of them as you shall think fit under Our said Great Seal remaining in your Custody with the same dates without any alteration thereof or any other dates after according to your discretion.

AND WHEREAS We are likewise given to understand that there are divers Injunctions, Decrees and Dismissions by Order of Our High Court of Justice given by the Master of the Rolls and other Commissioners which Injunctions, Decrees and Dismissions ought to be signed by Our Chancellor or Keeper of Our Great Seal for the time being and are not yet signed, We have thought good likewise to give you full power and authority to affirm and subscribe all such Injunctions, Decrees and Dismissions according to the Orders entered concerning the same in the Registers Office of Record or so many of them as you shall think fit without further hearing and to pass such

The Lord Chancellor

To pass Grants depending.
